ABOUT DAWES PAINTS

Dawes Paints are a well-established company who provide decorating essentials and are based in the heart of Hammersmith.

A family run business led by Ryan Dawes, the team at Dawes Paints are committed to providing great service to the local community and beyond.

ABOUT YOUR COMMS GROUP

Telecommunication and connectivity industry experts, Your Comms Group provide services to thousands of UK companies from local Home Care providers to large UK unions.

Head of Sales, Joshua Tatiah has regularly attended Networking.London events, connecting with a multitude of potential customers.

SUMMARY

Ryan and Joshua crossed paths at one of the first Networking.London events in Q1 2022.

During this encounter, Joshua shared a practical proposal with Ryan that went on to enhance Dawes Paints' telecommunications setup by incorporating new landlines, faster broadband and professional hold lines for customers.

These improvements played a crucial role in streamlining communication within the company, and saved the Dawes Paints team both time and money, particularly invaluable during the ongoing cost of living crisis.

"Not only did Joshua improve our outdated devices and lines, but he also saved us a whopping £2,000 a year on our bills which is just incredible!"

"I really do believe that through the community inside Networking.London, we as business owners can innovate to make sure we can get through payroll each month."
